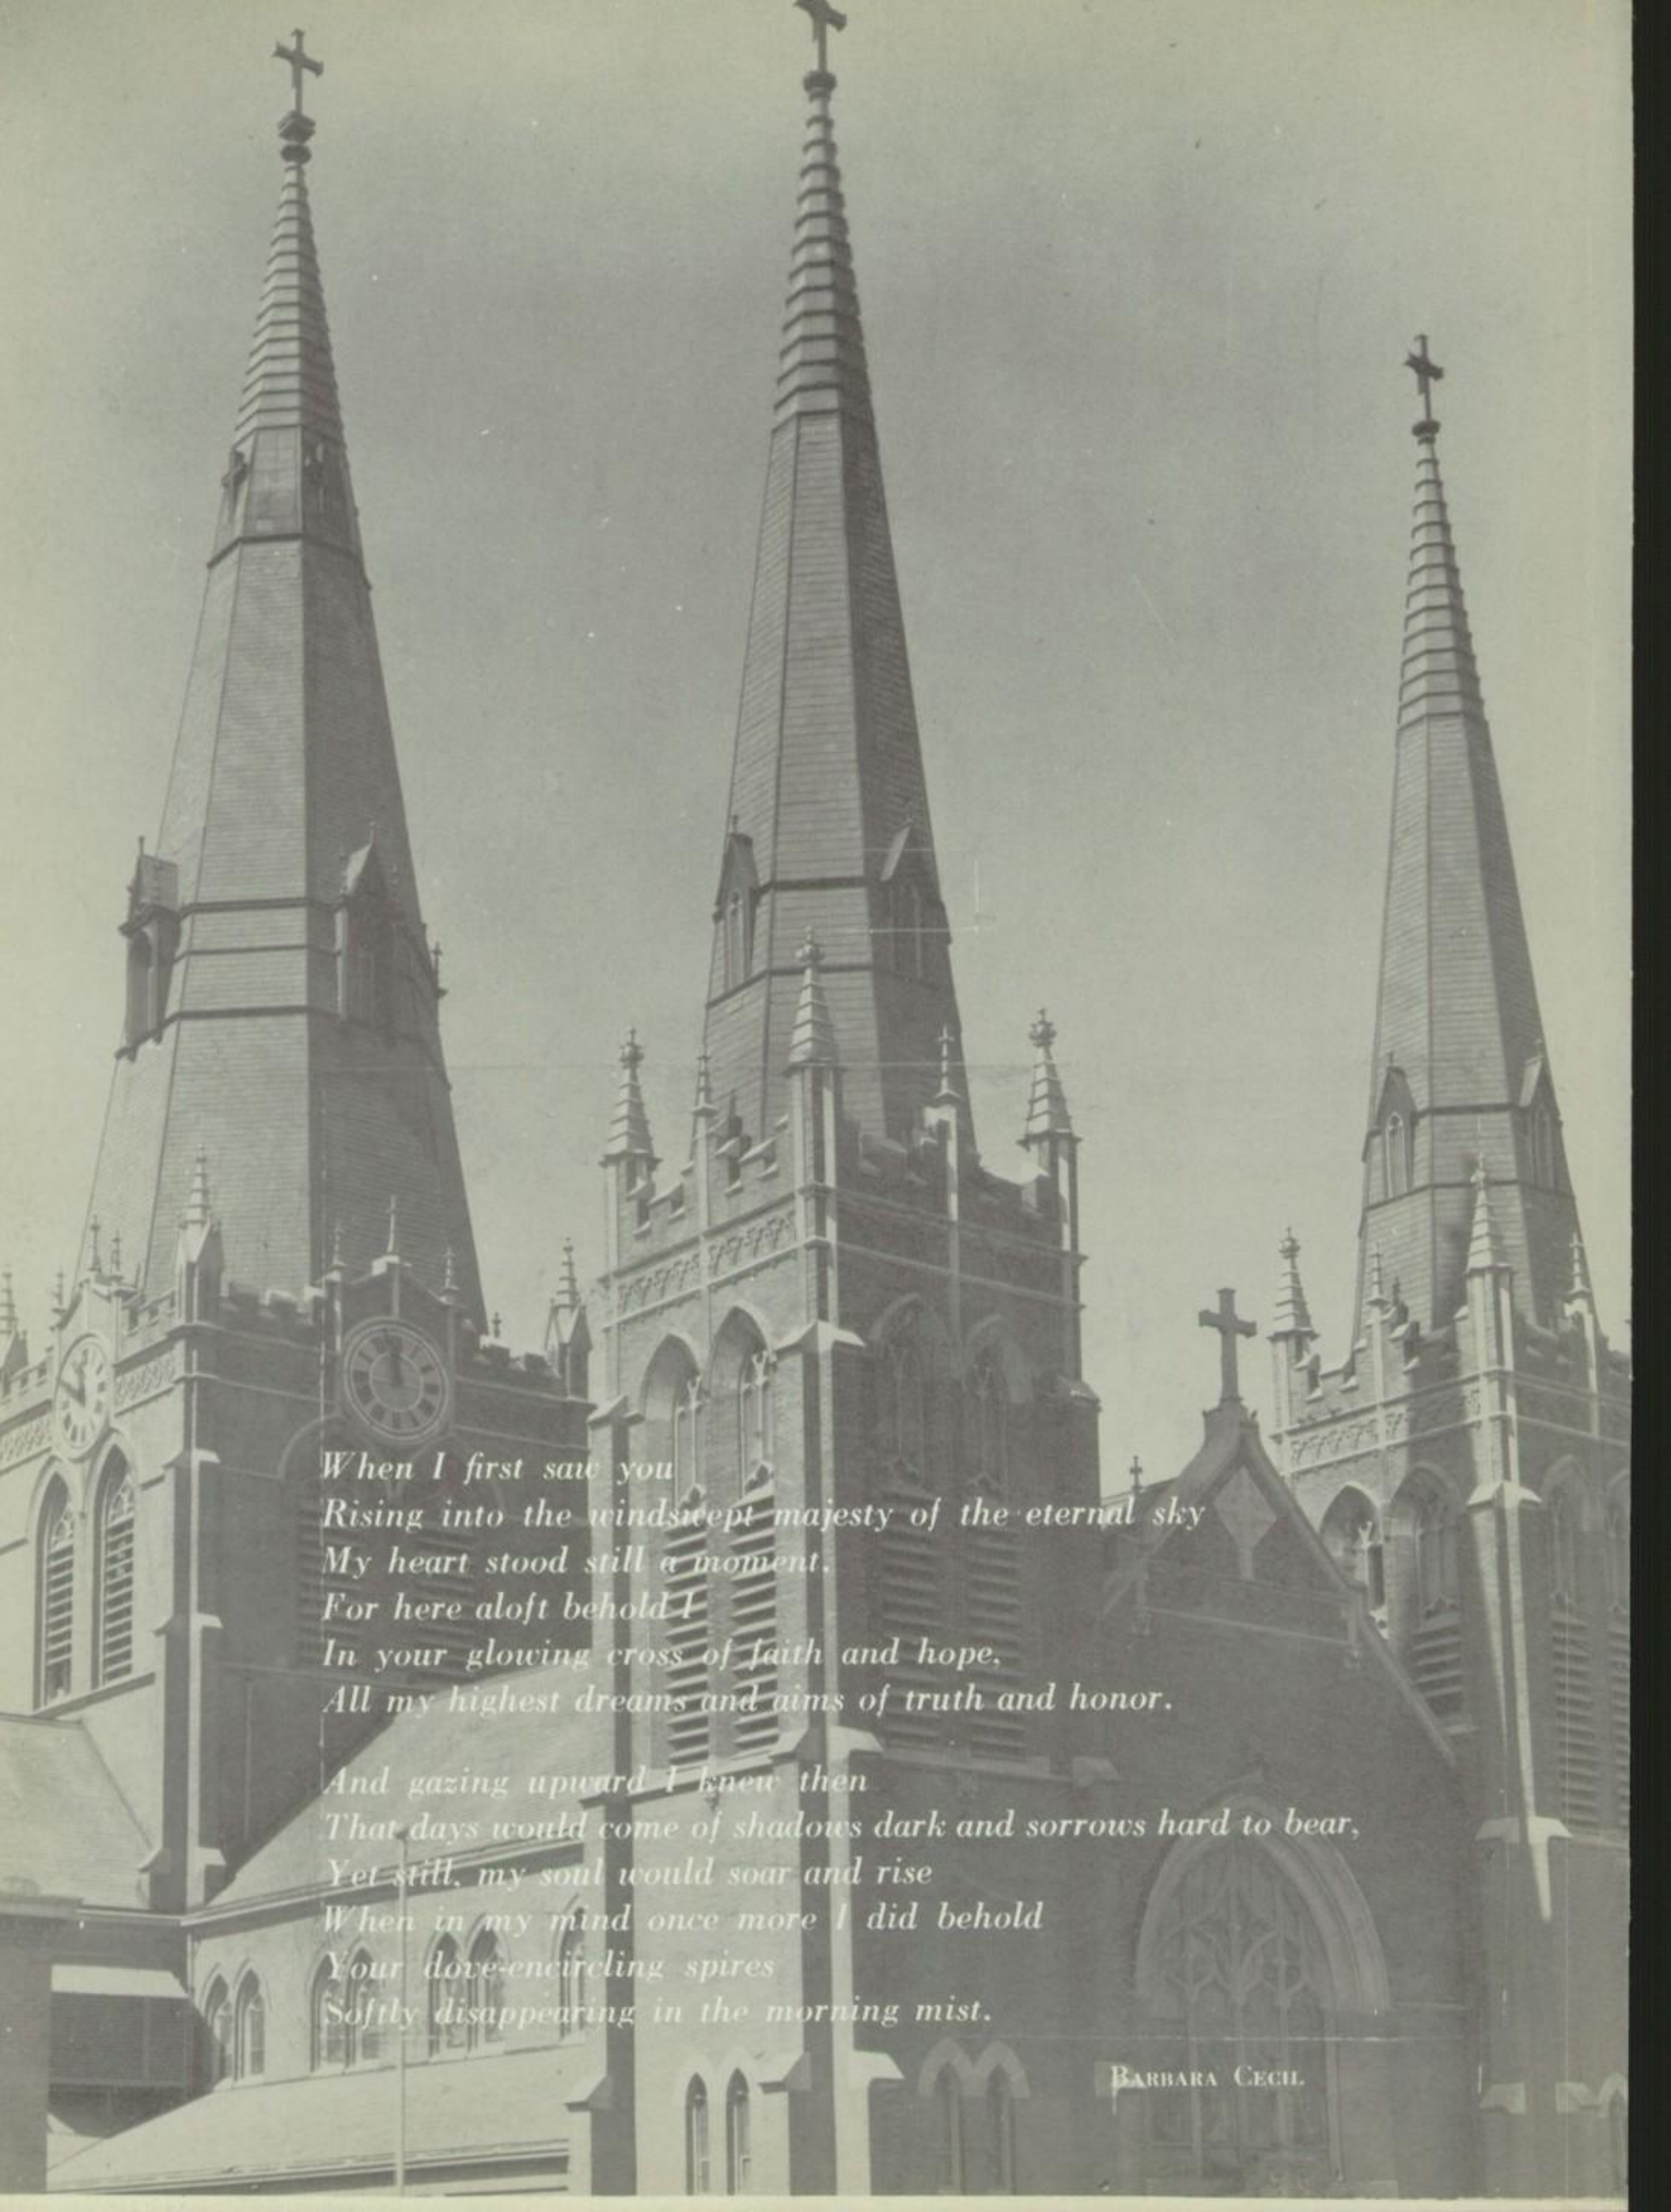
THE SPIRES 1955



When I first saw you
Rising into the windswept majesty of the eternal sky
My heart stood still a moment.
For here aloft behold I
In your glowing cross of faith and hope,
All my highest dreams and aims of truth and honor.

And gazing upward I knew then
That days would come of shadows dark and sorrows hard to bear,
Yet still, my soul would soar and rise
When in my mind once more I did behold
Your dove-encircling spires
Softly disappearing in the morning mist.

BARBARA CECIL

D. Hudgins, R. Middleton, K. McNallen, P. Stokes, M. Friel, and B. Weikel decide that the snow is just right for an "Ideal Man".

Pat O'Connor, Bonnie Orrill, Tom Conner, Nancy Bash, and Donna Parker, welcome some new comers to Holy Family, Francine Anderson and Eleanor Forde.

"He who leads many unto justice shall shine like the stars for all eternity."

DEDICATION

In keeping with the Golden Anniversary of Oklahoma, we lovingly and gratefully dedicate this volume of the "Spires" to our beloved Bishops, Priests, and Sisters who have borne the burden and the heat of fifty years in the service of the Master—building, teaching, instructing, laboring at times under the most trying circumstances. Never counting the cost, but striving only to win souls for that imperishable kingdom of Eternal Beatitude.

To The Memory

Father Theophile Meerschaert, Vicar General of the Diocese of Natchez was appointed Vicar Apostolic of Indian Territory, with episcopal rank on June 8, 1891, was consecrated titular bishop of Sidyma at Natchez on September 8, and ten days later took possession of his new field.

From his residence, Guthrie, Oklahoma, he went forth in all directions to familiarize himself with people and conditions.

From the time the bishop arrived in Oklahoma until the proclamation of statehood on November 16, 1907, he established 68 new parishes.

During his benign administration until his death in 1924 there were a total of 45 schools. Many pages could be written concerning the outstanding work of our noble and saintly Bishop.

of Our Bishops

Following the death of Bishop Meerschaert, Our Holy Father appointed Monsignor Kelley to the rank of the episcopal in Chicago, October 2, 1924. In the same year he was installed at Oklahoma City October 15 and given the title Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Although Bishop Kelley was a world known figure as lecturer and diplomat, he perhaps is best known for his many writings. His books reflect a keen contemplative mind, philosophical and strongly tinctured with common sense.

Bishop Kelley's progress to the hierarchy was a unique one. He held but three posts. The first was that of the young priest of Lapeer. The second was as founder and president of the Catholic church Extension society and editor of its magazine. The third was his last assignment. His death occurred February 1, 1948.

OUR BELOVED BISHOP

MOST REV. EUGENE J.
McGUINNESS D. D. Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, Okla.

As the theme for our yearbook, "The Spires", we have chosen the Seven Gifts of the Holy Ghost because they bring our actions into line with God's standards of conduct. They help us to have our human lives as Christ lived His human life. They make us docile to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit, the Master Teacher of the spiritual life. We have not followed the gifts in their natural order, but have endeavored to fit them into a pattern which will best portray our school life.

The Gift Of Wisdom applies to our administration and faculty, for it is such a gift that sweetens the bitterness of life and makes us think less of the difficulties we meet than of the eternal reward they will bring us.

The Gift Of Fear Of The Lord seems best for the seniors, for speaking of the gift of fear, Ecclesiastes says: "He that feareth the Lord shall tremble at nothing, and shall not be afraid; for He is his hope. The soul of him that feareth the Lord is blessed."

The Gifts Of Knowledge and Understanding apply to all the students, for such gifts enable one to look at a situation from all angles and, after considering them carefully to decide what to do and what not to do. Getting along with one's fellow men is nothing more than understanding from a purely natural view point but when divinized it is truly a supernatural gift.

The Gift Of Counsel causes us to trust our teachers and their admonitions because of the obligations placed upon them.

The Gift Of Piety represents our religious activities and our service to our fellow men.

The Gift Of Fortitude applies to all students but especially those participating in sports where manly courage, deep faith, humility and honesty are constantly challenged.

FEAR OF THE LORD

The gift of the fear of the Lord inspires us with a sovereign respect for God, and makes us avoid whatever is contrary to His holy will.

The most important event of the scholastic year was the receiving of the class ring. Sixty-one seniors pronounced it a "Red Letter Day" when Monsignor blessed and presented their rings.

R. Nestle, M. McNulty, M. Arnett, and W. Leader proudly display their rings to Fathers McCarthy and Brickner.

Thad Eustice and Roger Nestle assisted Monsignor in distributing the rings.

Realizing that a knowledge of sociology is needed especially in these modern times, teachers have become cognizant of the fact that no citizen can correctly appraise social institutions, social problems, proposed laws, and proposed changes without a knowledge of social facts and principles. Only upon a basis of such facts can any effective Catholic Action be accomplished. Students discussing a vital problem concerning the influence of environment are M. Huff, J. Molloy, W. Leader, R. Hughes, C. Olendorff, D. Wharton, R. Nestle, and G. Campbell.

Mike needs little assurance from Ronnie, Nancy, and Joyce that he looks quite elegant in his cap and gown, for this mirror tells the truth.

School Wins Trophy

Early in the school year, an ex-graduate of '54, Al Gittrich, who is connected with Youth Court of the City came to visit H. F. and to show the students a trophy which could be theirs on condition that they ranked highest in the least numbers of traffic tickets for October. It became a reality on October 30th, at General Assembly, when Sgt. Phillips of the Youth Traffic Court presented the trophy to Thad Eustice, senior, who substituted for the Class President Roger Nestle who was ill. The sergeant's talk stimulated the pupils to observe traffic rules and to work for a permanent trophy.

A style show sponsored by the Women's Cathedral Club found Sister Ethelreda and some of her art class busy at work preparing the decorations. A profusion of hearts, cupids, and red carnations formed a colorful background and brought many compliments to Sister and the girls on their artistic work. Students are Teresa Englert, Charlene Turner, Suzie Turinsky, Virginia Long and Agnes Greer.

American History Can Be Interesting

While Marie Friel calls out the questions, Helen Williams, Henry Hipp, Dick Crowley, James Miller, Barbara Hamilton, Martin Reidy, and Jerry Graves attempt to find the answers in periodicals. Barbara seems to have found the answer.

Top row: Dick Crowley, Corinne Flynn, Martha Fogarty.

Second row: Marie Friel, Gene Gittrich, Lupe Gomez, Jerry Graves.

Third row: Judy Guilfoyle, Barbara Hamilton, Charlotte Henry, Henry Hipp, Dolores Hudgins.

Service to the school and others is part of the daily program that makes for an all rounded education. Patsy Stokes and Jean Robish decorate two bulletin boards for Book Week.

Mike Collins and James are using their mathematics to advantage in helping to prepare stage setting for Monsignor's jubilee.

First row: Martha Jordan, Ellen Kehoe, Virgil Klaus, Nancy Lindquist.

Second row: Charlotta McDonald, Jerry McGouldrick.

Third row: Kathleen McNallen, Bruce McNeil.

Fourth row: Autry Mears, Rita Middleton.

Fifth row: James Miller.

Classes Attend School Press Conference

The first Catholic Press Conference of its kind was held in Oklahoma City October 30, at Catholic Central High. The highlight to the meeting was the presence of Mr. Robert Kidera, Marquette University, School of Journalism, special address was "The Vocation of the Highschool Journalist."

Sectional Sessions were devoted to the newspaper and the yearbook. Mary Louise Huff H. F. was Chairman for one group; while Suzie Turinsky was discussion leader on the same panel.

Sister St. Rita, Mrs. Murphy, and Miss Burt accompanied the girls. The boys were kind enough to furnish the cars.

Second row: Patt Penington, Nancy Perez, Jack Preston, Jean Robisch.

Junior and senior girls enjoyed the "Journalism Meet" in Oklahoma City. They are J. Robisch, C. Turner, M. Wehmeyer, C. Kitt, S. Turinsky, R. Middleton, J. Walker, and A. Mears (chauffeurs) Corinne Flynn, D. Alexander, T. Elias, M. Friel, D. Warden, M. Arnett, J. Esterline, E. Kehoe, B. Cecil, P. Penington, M. Swift.

Robert Spears

As J. Guilfoyle, A. Cathy, and S. Salinas pass their favorite statue "The Holy Family," Sylvia points out that the Christ Child carried a cross from his earliest childhood. This thought affords a minute meditation for her school mates.

Since White Irises were needed for a play festival and it was too early in the season for them and the florists did not have them, the junior girls solved the problem by making them. They turned out to be quite realistic and S. Salinas, L. Lupe, N. Perez, A. Cathy, J. Guilfoyle, K. McNallen and L. Lindquist felt much satisfaction in the service rendered.

First row: Patsy Stokes.
Second row: Margaret Ann Swartz, Mary Beth Swift, John Walker, Dick Walls.

One of the happiest events for the girls is the arrival of their new Pep Squad uniforms. Green woolen sweaters with the monogram H. F. in gold, and green skirts, make a perfect ensemble. "The boys are bound to win more games," remarks L. Warren to her companions C. Henry, E. Kehoe, C. Cook and L. Burkhart.

'Phillips 66' has been the method used at Holy Family for several years to arrive at definite conclusions on problems of religion as discussed in Y.C.S. meetings. John Gutierrez, the chairman (right) tells Lynn Campbell, Teresa Anderson, Alford Edwards, Jo Lynn Carey, and Robert Molfese the points he has enumerated in six minutes.

These students, Elmer Foster, Phyllis Hugo, Myron Quapaw, Janice Futhey, Alice Martin, Bonnie Lee Wallis, Nancy Lanigan, Sheryl West, and George Johnson have formed good reading habits and are intrigued by the many interesting books that they are able to check out of the library.

SPANISH II

Languages come to life, especially when we can act them out in dances and plays. Here Rose Marie Massad demonstrates a Spanish dance for Phyllis James, Rose Marie Thompson, Beverly Seals, Susanne Diaz, Theresa Anderson, Joyce Bean, and Anna Lynne Carey.

COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY

Theresa Stromie, George Johnson and Alfred Edwards are interested in tracing some important trade routes by famous explorers.

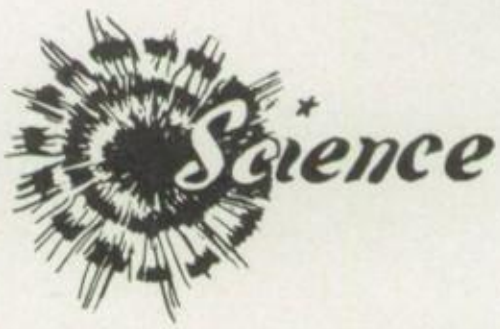
SCIENCE

Which of these young scientists may be another Einstein? "The future remains to be seen," say Phyllis Hugo, Kay Hardesty, Bucky Sparger, James Hardesty, John Lawrence, and Edward Gilliss. There seem to be many potentialities for this distinction among the students in the General Science Class.



"Conjugations, declensions, translations," they're fun if you can keep them straight," echo the pupils. But when tests come it's so easy to get them mixed, they all agree. As Rachel Nieto and Robert Molfese demonstrate their skill at the board, Ed Weilel, Beatrice O'Brien, Mary Soli, Ray Romero, Jo Lynn Askew, James Collier, and Janice Anderson check their work.

RELIGION I

Religion becomes a vital, living thing, for these freshmen boys and girls who make a special study of truths not alienated from daily living but rather a counterpart. The Bible, current Catholic literature as well as supplementary books lend interest to the lesson.

Civics Is One of Our Favorite Subjects

The study of civics makes for good government. While making a study of the affairs of our country we are likewise learning self control. These young students Charles Stewart, Eddie Harmon, Betty Busse, Catherine Graif, Margaret Ann Anthamatten, and Jack Kirk have begun to realize the importance of this study and are diligently doing their homework in the library.

Junior and senior boys, Martin Reidy, Mike McNulty, Gary Baird, Denny Wharton, Robert Cline, Jack Preston, Dick Walls, Thad Eustice, and Roger Nestle, under the direction of Mr. Robert Greer will sing the Holy Week services.

Drama and Speech Class

"Just a Little Mistake," the one act play presented by Suzie Turinsky, Sandra Silver, Charlene Turner, Agnes Greer, Margaret Arnett and Virginia Long came very near ending in tragedy because an imposter was mistaken for a count and a cook was turned aside.

It all started out so innocently when a woman moved into the neighborhood and announced that her husband was doing some very important work that she couldn't talk about. A bit of business called her away and the neighbors decided to unpack her many things. The finding of a great number of revolvers, knives, and other dangerous weapons convinced the "Gossips" that their new neighbor was quite dangerous.

He was nothing more than a criminologist and the neighbors were disappointed. Teresa Englert, Charlene Brown, Patsy Stokes, Judy Guilfoyle, Barbara Cecil, Bonnie Orrill, Shirley DeBoer and Margaret Ann Swartz convinced the audience that they were typical gossips.

"What a dangerous weapon!" exclaims Charlene.

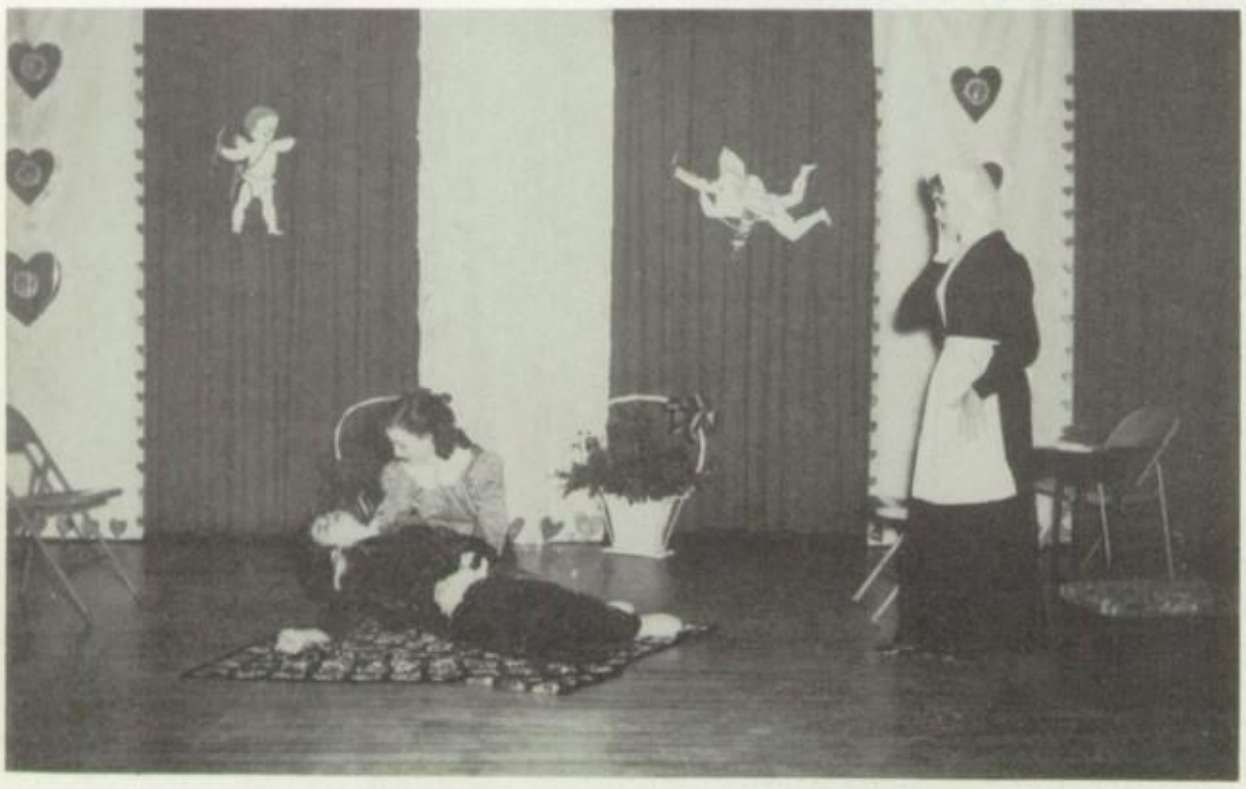
Mrs. Cloud returns to the consternation of the neighbors.

"White Iris" Is Presented At Guild

"White Iris," a one act play, by Roberta Shannon was presented at the Oklahoma Catholic Theater Guild held at Monte Cassino February 12, when nine schools met for the third consecutive year to hold their annual play festival. These lassies representing the 1890's brought the audience to tears as they acted out a poignant story in the lives of two sisters.
The characters are Jan Esterline, the housekeeper, Barbara Cook, the invalid, Corrine Flynn, her sister, and Dolores Hudgins, a vivacious friend.

A bowl of white Iris brought by Lucy, the neighbor, seems to fit into the story perfectly, for the invalid has just received a copy of her poems, "White Iris" which she had published unknown to her sister.

The reading of the tea leaves was an exciting little scene in the play. According to the housekeeper all was well for Miss Lucy, the neighbor, but as for the invalid and her sister , the leaves spelled tragedy.



In the closing scene when the invalid dies in her sister's arms, the housekeeper is filled with deep emotion, for she just knew it was those tea leaves.

Room Becomes Miniature Art Gallery

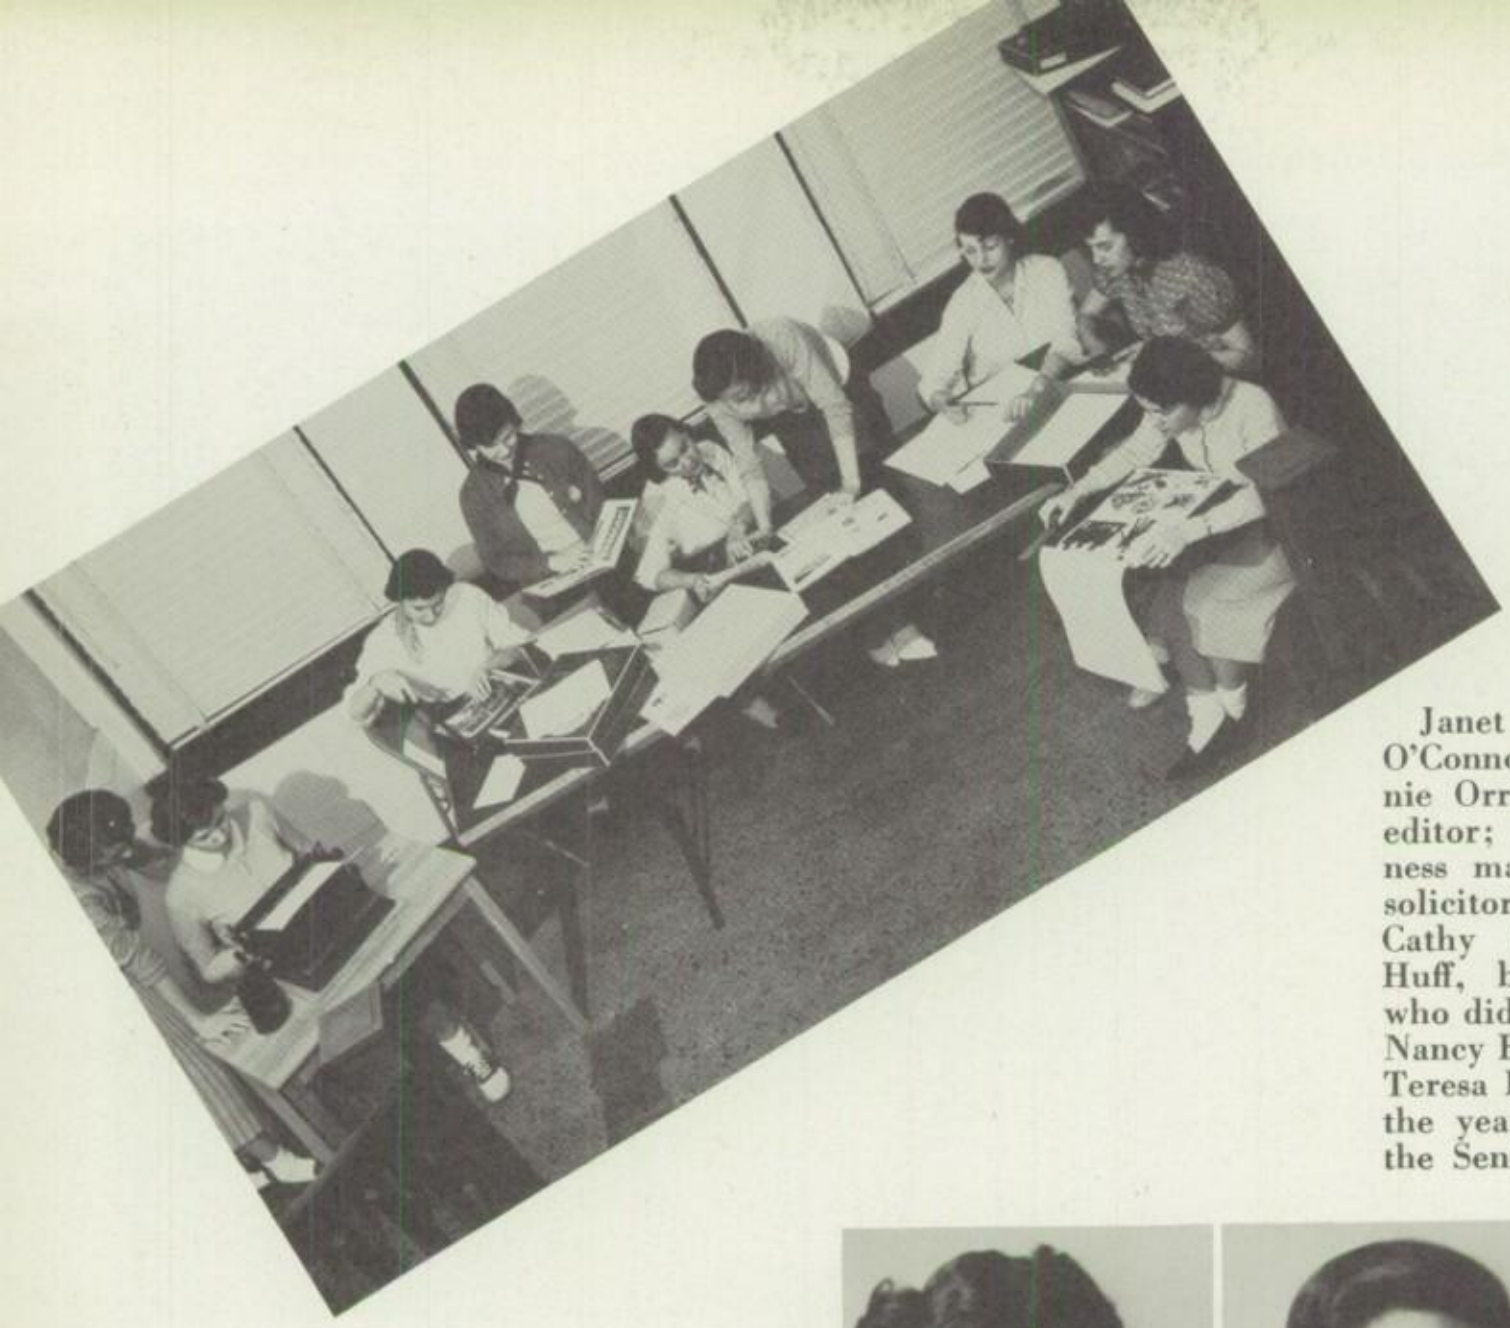
Now if you could walk into the room opposite the Commercial department, you would think you were in a real little art gallery; for there the students have worked out a unit in paper mache', beads, figurines including crib-sets and our Lady of Fatima group, decorative plates in tempera.

Senior Students at work are: Teresa Englert, Suzie Turinsky, Charlene Turner, Virginia Long, Sandra Silver, Donna Alexander, Agnes Greer.

Pastels, charcoal, still life, and landscapes have intrigued the juniors: Charlotte Henry, Helen Williams, Pat Austin, Nancy Lindquist, Martha Jordan, Sandra Buckendorf, Patti Burke, Charlotta McDonald.
The last unit of work for the scholastic year will be in oils and textile.

Our High Sales Ladies

These two seniors, Margie Wehmeyer and Carolyn Kitt, are the high sales ladies for the yearbook. It was not so easy soliciting ads as it all started out to be, but to quote the girls, "We did have lots of fun and we believe the experience will serve its purpose in giving us a better understanding of business, people, and human nature."



Janet Griffin, copy editor; Pat O'Connor, typist and layout; Bonnie Orrill, typist; Barbara Cecil, editor; Margie Wehmeyer, business manager; Carolyn Kitt, ad solicitor, Teresa Englert, typist; Cathy Olendorff, typist; Mary Huff, business manager. Others who did work on the yearbook are Nancy Bash, Charlene Turner, and Teresa Elias. Soliciting of ads for the yearbook was turned over to the Senior Class.

In January a club for those aspiring to be nurses was organized with Donna Parker as president, Nancy Lindquist, vice president, Janet Griffin, corresponding secretary, and Carolyn Kitt, recording secretary. One of their first projects was a trip to St. John's Hospital and the Nurses' Home which proved interesting and beneficial to the prospective nurses.

NURSES' CLUB PRAYER

Jesus, lover of the sick and needy, we who aspire to be nurses, do humbly entreat You, to enlighten and protect, direct and govern, our every action, that we may always do your work well and faithfully.

Let us ever keep in mind, that anything we do in serving humanity, is really ministering to You.

And let us not forget that "Whitecaps", the name we bear, is the Nurse's banner for mercy. May it spur us ever onward to live up to our ideals. With your divine help and guidance may we persevere in our desires to reach our ultimate goal. Amen.

Students Rank High In Scholastic Achievement

Oklahoma's State Honor Society, founded for the purpose of encouraging students to work for high scholastic honors, has been instrumental in setting a high goal for achievement. This goal, once attained by Freshmen is sought after for three consecutive years. Some can boast of the honor for four years; while others just could not reach it.

These three students, Janet Griffin, Ronald Welch, and Charlene Turner have spent 12 years at Holy Family. Ups and downs, they have had, but on the whole, they say, school life has been very pleasant.

Donna McNallen,

Senior Receives Award

In a competition test, The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow, Donna received the highest score in a written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes of the senior girls. She is now the proud possessor of a golden award pin. Should she be a state winner, it would mean a $1,500 scholarship and a trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia and Philadelphia.

Monsignor A. Levin as he gives a resume of Monsignor's life from his entrance into the priesthood up to the present time.

On His Jubilee

Approximately three hundred and fifty of the upper grades and high school sang the Jubilee Mass. This Mass was composed by Sister Elaine CDP of Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio, Texas, and directed by Sister Gabriella of Holy Family assisted by Mr. Robert Greer.

The Glee Club Entertain At Banquet

The Glee Club under the direction of Sister Gabriella accompanied by Cathryn Coldwell sang, "All in an April Evening," "Thanks Be To God," and "I Wish I Were."

His Excellency Bishop McGuinness, and approximately one hundred priests honor Monsignor at his Jubilee banquet.

Drama students and others present "Mystical Gifts," a pageant honoring Monsignor's Jubilee. They are Dolores Hudgins, Teresa Englert, Suzie Turinsky, Corinne Flynn, Charlene Turner, Patsy Stokes, and Virginia Long. They vividly portray the Spirit of Joy, Loyalty, Music, Poetry, Literature, Flowers, Happiness.

A group of boys from the lower grades bearing a banner of twenty-five silver stars represent the first communicants and altar boys.

While John Kontogianes recites the "Beautiful Hands of a Priest," freshmen girls prepare to gather a bouquet of prayers in a silver urn to present to Monsignor.

The little girls marching in formation and carrying a red rose place it in the numbers twenty-five while Sharon Jane Mounger recites a Jubilee poem.

Gift Presentation Climaxes Jubilee

Margaret Arnett, accompanied by her Sister Spirits presents gifts to Monsignor from the faculty and students of the school.

Following the pageant by the students of the school, the parishioners show their appreciation by generous gifts. Attorney Austin Gavin voices the sentiments of all when he says it would be hard to find another Monsignor Reed.

As the junior girls, Patt Penington, Mary Beth Swift, Rita Middleton, Ellen Kehoe, Sylvia Salinas and Nancy Perez put the finishing touches on the crib, they breathe a sigh of satisfaction for their work has been approved by their teacher, Sister Raymond.

It was quite a treat for the little ones to visit the Sisters' crib away up on the fourth floor of the building. They were the envy of all their classmates.

Some of the senior girls, V. Long, J. Gardner, C. Turner, C. Olendorff, and D. Parker, just drop in to see the Sisters' tree. "Why it's even prettier than ours" remarked one of the girls.

The traditional carols are sung by these choristers Joe Avey, Jan Esterline, Cathryn Coldwell, Ellen Kehoe, Rita Middleton, Barbara Cook, Jean Robisch, Margaret Ann Swartz, Ann Cathy, Corinne Flynn and Kay McNallen.

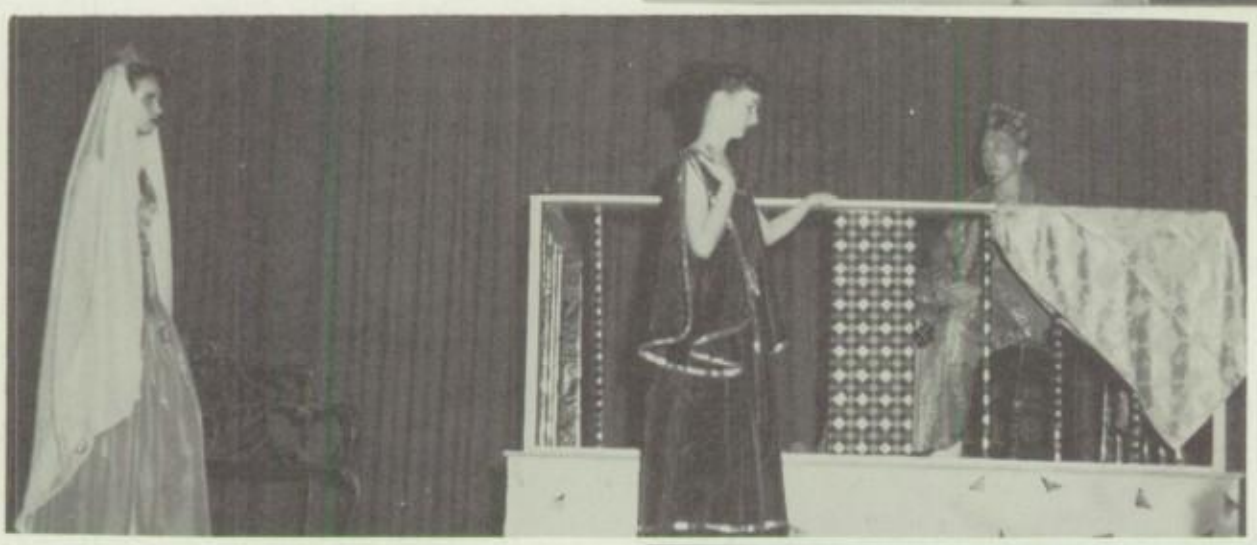
Scenes from "The Bethlehem Road"

The High Priest, Hillel, Richard Seals, and the councilor Tabbath, Clem Reinkemeyer, plan how they can induce Judith, Corinne Flynn, to marry Herod.

Miriam, Barbara Cook, and Seth, Miriam's friend, Mike McNulty, plead with Herod to spare the life of Miriam's father.



Judith, Corinne Flynn, listens to Herod's wild and passionate speech but seems unmoved. Salome, the sister of Herod, Cathryn Coldwell, taunts the king and reviles him for his wickedness.

The soldiers, Hildreth and Malchus, Bill Swaggerty and Gary Baird, are preparing to execute the king's orders to put Judith to death.

To be Christ's page at the altar
To serve Him freely there,
Where even the angels falter
Bowed low in reverent prayer
To touch the throne most holy,
To hand the gift for the feast
To see Him meekly, lowly
Descend at the word of the priest.
What greater graces could one enjoy
Than just being God's altar boy?

Our maintenance man, Mr. Pete Diedrich, retires after thirty-five years of faithful service at Holy Family.

Mr. Diedrich was born in Rhineland, Germany July 26, 1873. He came to this country at the age of sixteen and first settled in Pennsylvania.

During his many years at Holy Family because of his patience, gentleness and deep religious spirit he endeared himself both to the faculty and students who miss him around the building. All will often whisper a fervent "Ave" for him and beg God's special blessing on him.

HF Surprises Meteors 49-37

The Holy Family Crusaders kept their cage winning streak alive Thursday night in the Cascia Hall gym, as they rode a red hot third quarter to a 49-37 win over the Marquette Meteors.

After a nip-an-tuck first half the Crusaders pulled away in the third stanza to post their second win of the season over Marquette and record their seventh straight victory.

Holy Family led 8-7 at the end of the first quarter, and held an 18-15 halftime lead. They pulled away to a 31-23 margin at the three-quarter mark.

Robert Swab, Marquette guard took high point honors with 15 points. He hit 13 of his points in the final period. Dick Walls paced the winners with 17 points.

Holy Family now has a conference record of 5-2, while the Meteors are 6-3.

Holy Family, in an all-out, do-or-die effort for the playoffs pulled a colossal Frank Merriwell feat by winning their last 7 games, 5 of them in the rugged Catholic Conference.

The Crusaders hold the distinction of being the only conference team to beat the Meteors twice this season; the other victory over their 15th st. rivals came on Feb. 1, by a 59-46 margin.

Bob Kirberger's red hot Holy Family Crusaders clinched a position in the state Catholic playoffs by blasting the Marquette Meteors to the thumping tune of 49-37, Thursday night, before a capacity crowd at the Cascia Hall gym.

Brillhart Connects

Defense was the keynote in the initial period which saw the Crusaders on the upper end of an 8-7 count at its close. The two squads continued to show respect for each other in the second quarter as the score was knotted twice and changed hands four times. The victors, however, took advantage of a pair of timely set shots from guard Ronnie Brillhart to hike their intermission lead to 18-15.

In the third frame, the Meteors were almost completely helpless in solving the aggressive Crusader defense and were repelled with a lone field goal during the grueling eight minutes. Here Holy Family led, 31-23.

The Meteors employed a successful fast break in the final heat but the highly-inspired Crusaders more than matched their scoring output with uncanny inside accuracy.

(1) Paul shoots for another two points.
(2) Mike makes the basket in spite of the heavy guarding.
(3) The Pep Squad cheered the boys on to victory.
(4) Dick's 6' 4" saved the day.

Holy Family in 104-50 Win

With Ronnie Brillhart setting a red-hot pace, the Holy Family Crusaders rolled up the largest point total by a Tulsa prep team this season as they blasted St. Michael's of Henryetta 104-50 Wednesday night in the Cascia Hall gym.

Brillhart, a former Central Brave cager, hit 19 field goals and three free throws for a lofty 41 points. Mike Browne added 21 points for the winning Crusaders.

The game was a make-up affair for the canceled Holy Family-OMA game. The game was called off because of a flu attack at OMA, and the Holy Family-Henryetta game was quickly arranged to fill in.

Bossert topped the losers in scoring with 15 points. [illegible] hit 14.

It was the sixth win son for Holy Family. lost seven.

CRUSADERS KNOCK OFF CASCIA HALL TO GAIN FINALS

Special to The Tulsa World

OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 5— Holy Family's Crusaders [illegible] knocked off defending ch[illegible] Cascia Hall, 52-43, here Sa[illegible] night to gain a spot in the [illegible] of the state Catholic tourn[illegible] against Marquette of Tulsa.

Marquette gained a spot i[illegible] finals with an afternoon vi[illegible] over St. Joseph's of Musk[illegible] 78-51.

Ronnie Brillhart, a brilliant [illegible] around performer for Holy Fam[illegible] sparked the surprising Crusaders to their victory. He scored 26 points and grabbed rebounds off both boards. Cascia Hall led early but after Holy Family took charge, 21-20, just before halftime [illegible] Commandos never scored.

1. Our man Brillhart sinks one more—
2. Last-Minute instructions from Coach Kirberger.
3. Browne snares the ball with help from Conley.
4. Seals will get this one!
5. Ronnie goes up for another tip off.

And Bring Home A Trophy!

The Crusaders of '55 after a dismal start, losing the first six games in a row, finally began hitting on all 5 cylinders and reeled off a winning streak of 7 straight games, and ended up with a respectable 10-9 record. Sparked on their drive to the State Tournament by Ronnie Brillhart, and Dick Walls, the Crusaders defeated their arch rivals Marquette twice in Conference play.

This year's team was perhaps the best in the history of the school as they set 4 records: Most points in one game, most points by 1 player in a game, longest winning streak, and the first team in the history of the school to beat Marquette twice in 1 year. The games were highlighted by brilliant offensive play, sharp, defensive maneuvers, and above all a great team spirit.

THE BOYS LOOK OVER THE TROPHY

Tournament

At Oklahoma City, the Crusaders played Cascia Hall in the first round and when the gun sounded, they were on the long end of a 52-43 count. This was the first time Holy Family had beaten Cascia in basketball in 20 years. Ronnie Brillhart, almost singlehandedly towed the Crusaders through the game scoring 26 points, 11 in the last quarter.

Holy Family and Marquette collided for the State Championship and after a hard played contest, Marquette was the victor: 53-46. It was a heartbreaking defeat for the gallant and spirited Crusaders who won the last 6 Conference games in a row to get in the Tournaments. The team finished runner up, and we wish to say that a finer example of team play, over the whole season, has never been seen before at Holy Family.

Dearest Winnie,

Gosh I'm glad we're leaving Skye, but I'm also gonna miss all the trouble we got into, sneaking out the front door and skipping school, oh well we'll find other "trouble" probably. Seriously, though I'll miss it all. you know just how I really like you. and remember our fun at S.O.T.V. and Steve Powell. Lots of luck and happiness.

Love, Fran

Dear Winnie,
you are a swell gal and I will never forget the friendship you gave me this year. I've enjoyed all the times we have had together and the little troubles we've had. I hope Jacks comes to see you often. If he doesn't he just has to be nuts because a boy never had such a true girlfriend. God Bless you well I sure had fun this year I hope you did also. I hope to see you at H & M. Don't forget to help me get Jack girl in my room. Also I hope to see you and that together also I can see Wagner ball something very important to happen. Winnie you are going to happen. Winnie for a year. I'll start person I can have friend.

Dear Winnie
God bless you
Mary

Dear Win,
I have a lot to say but it would take a book so I will just summarize it. Our friendship has been closer this year than ever before. Just like I have enjoyed being around you because I have and also you are a gal I really love and admire. I know Jackie thinks the world of you and could be but help because we love you very much. I'm sorry you didn't get to see C.T.M. because Jackie is a little doll.
Best of luck always and see you real soon.
Love.
Nancy.

Dear Winnie,
I hope you get ahead, you really need one. The best. always
